GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS MORGAN TO VETERINARY MEDICAL BOARD

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Katie Owen Morgan of Lillington to the North Carolina Veterinary Medical Board.

Morgan is a retired educator. She formerly served on the East Carolina University Board of Trustees and on the N.C. and U.S. Boards of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. She was recognized during East Carolina's Centennial Celebration during 2007 as one of the "100 Incredible ECU Women of the Century." Morgan has a Master's degree in English and a Bachelor's degree in English and French from East Carolina University.

The board promotes the public health, safety, and welfare of the people of the state by safeguarding them against unqualified or incompetent practitioners of veterinary medicine. The board has eight members, each serving a five-year term. The governor appoints five members. The Agriculture Commissioner, Senate President Pro Tempore and Speaker of the House each appoint one member.
